

Peter Savory (Pupil)

Called in 2018 (GI) 020 7583 9241

Peter was called to the Bar by Gray's Inn in July 2018 and joined Chambers as a pupil in October 2018.

As a First Six pupil, under the supervision of Huw Davies and James Rozier, Peter has had experience of Chambers' core practice areas including personal injury, clinical negligence and employment. Peter's training in his First Six has included credit hire matters, fast track trials, cases involving fundamental dishonesty, procedural applications, CCMCs and appeals.

As a Second Six pupil, Peter welcomes instructions in all of Chambers' areas of expertise. He has personally been instructed in cases including both fast track and small claims trials, credit hire matters, Stage 3 hearings, infant approvals and a variety of applications. He is also developing a paperwork practice and welcomes instructions to draft pleadings, advices on liability, quantum, points of law, costs and procedure.

Peter was awarded a First in Law from the Open University and undertook the BPTC at BPP where he was assessed as outstanding in a number of modules, including Personal Injury and International Trade. He received multiple scholarships and awards as listed below.

Prior to commencing pupillage, Peter had an extensive career in commercial music specialising in large-scale touring projects. He worked widely in Europe and Asia, and had considerable success opening up the new Chinese market. Latterly he was the Managing Director of one of London's leading music agencies.

Away from the law Peter is a slow but persistent runner, having recently completed his first half marathon, and plays the trombone badly.
