Lauren Jones

Called in 2017 020 7583 9241

---

Lauren was called to the Bar in 2017 and joined Chambers as a tenant in October 2020 following successful completion of her pupillage.

Before coming to the Bar, Lauren trained and qualified as a solicitor. She then undertook the Bar Professional Training Course and was graded as Outstanding, ranking top in her year. Following the BPTC and prior to joining Chambers, Lauren carried out county court advocacy in her capacity as a solicitor.

Lauren appears in court on a daily basis. She is regularly instructed on fast track trials and small claims as well as disposal hearings and a variety of interim applications. She additionally has a busy paperwork practice drafting pleadings and providing advice to both claimants and defendants.

Personal Injury

Personal injury makes up a significant portion of Lauren's practice. She appears in court in fast track trials, Stage 3 disposals and interim application hearings, acting for both claimants and defendants. She is able to advise and settle pleadings in matters involving road traffic accidents, occupiers' liability, the Highways Act 1980 and employers' liability, including cases involving fundamental dishonesty.
