Lewis Scott

Called in 2021 +44 (0)20 7583 9241

Lewis joined Chambers in October 2022 following the successful completion of his pupillage. He accepts instructions in all of Chambers' core areas of practice with a focus on road traffic matters, personal injury, and travel law.

Lewis appears in court daily, instructed on behalf of claimants and defendants in small claims and fast track trials, application hearings, infant settlement approvals and Stage 3 disposals. Lewis is also developing a busy paperwork practice and accepts instructions to advise on liability, quantum, and tactics, as well as for drafting pleadings, schedules of loss, and counter schedules.

Prior to joining Chambers Lewis worked in the litigation department of a specialist insurance law firm, acting on behalf of insurers in all aspects of fast and multi-track litigation. From this role Lewis worked as Assistant Counsel for a global Lloyd's of London Managing Agent where he assisted in a number of areas including the negotiation of multi-million pound contracts, policy wording disputes, and claims litigation both domestically and internationally.

Personal Injury

Lewis is regularly instructed in personal injury matters on behalf of claimants and defendants. He is happy to accept instructions for interim hearings and CMCs, as well as infant settlement approvals and Stage 3 disposals.

He also accepts paperwork instructions including advices, schedules, and pleadings in matters involving road traffic accidents, occupiers' liability, the Highways Act 1980, employers' liability, and cases involving fundamental dishonesty.

Lewis is willing to accept instructions on a CFA basis.
